

Stop Walking When Talking

The patient walks at his own comfortable pace and the examiner walks just behind him. After walking for 10 seconds, the evaluator initiates a conversation (on any topic, for example the patient's drugs) while continuing to walk. The test is positive if the patient stops walking within one second. The evaluator then stops walking.

Patient last name:
Patient first name:

Date of birth: / /
Date: / /